

7. You shall not steal, and (10) You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

- ___ Have I seriously entertained temptations to steal?
- ___ Have I stolen anything? What was it worth? Have I returned the stolen item or intend to return it?
- ___ Have I refused to seek the owner of property that I have found?
- ___ Have I damaged or been responsible for the damage of another person's property? What would be the cost of repairing or replacing it?
- ___ Have I caused harm to anyone in business dealings by means of fraud, deception, or coercion?
- ___ Have I been responsible with the money or other means of wealth which God has entrusted to me?
- ___ Have I spent beyond my means?
- ___ Have I deprived others of their needs by spending too little?
- ___ Have I been envious of the wealth or material goods of another person?
- ___ Have I honored my debts?
- ___ Have I been lazy with respect to my employment, household chores, work, or studies?
- ___ Have I been greedy?
- ___ Have I placed too high a value on material goods?
- ___ Have I failed to help those whom I know are truly needy?
- ___ Have I set my heart primarily on earthly pleasures and possessions, and not on the true treasures of Heaven?

8. You shall not lie.

- ___ Have I lied?
- ___ Have I sought to make up for the damage caused by my lies?
- ___ Have I accused or hastily judged others of wrongdoing without sufficient evidence?
- ___ Have I been guilty of detraction (that is, speaking about the faults of others without a good reason for doing so)?
- ___ Have I been guilty of calumny (that is, to falsely accuse someone of sinful conduct)?
- ___ Have I gossiped about another person?
- ___ Have I been excessively critical, negative, and uncharitable in my speech?
- ___ Have I failed to honor the confidences or secrets entrusted to me by another? Have I revealed them to someone else without permission or without due or serious cause?
- ___ Have I failed to defend the good name or honor of others?

Steps to a Good Confession

1. Carefully examine your conscience.
2. Be sincerely sorry for your sins.
3. Make a firm resolution not to sin again and to avoid the near occasion of sin.
4. Tell your sins to the priest, say an Act of Contrition when asked to do so, and receive absolution.
5. Do the penance the priest gives you.

Suggested Dialogue

Priest: May the Lord be on your heart, on your mind, and on your lips so that you may know your sins, and confess them with true repentance and a firm purpose of amendment.

Penitent: Bless me Father, for I have sinned. It has been _____ since my last confession

Here state your sins. Priest gives counsel and penance.

Penitent makes Act of Contrition when asked to do so:

Oh my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they have offended Thee, my God, Who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance and to amend my life. Amen.

Receive absolution and then respond "Thanks be to God."

The Celebration of the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation

“To those who have been far away from the Sacrament of Reconciliation and forgiving love I make this appeal: come back to this source of grace; do not be afraid! Christ is waiting for you. He will heal you and you will be at peace with God!”

—John Paul II, September 13, 1987
